RE: MUR 5279
Bill Bradley for President, Inc.

Dear Ms. Kushner:

On June 26, 2002, the Federal Election Commission found that there is reason to believe you violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 441a(a)(3), 441f and 11 C.F.R. §§ 110.5(b), 110.4(b)(1)(iv), provisions of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act") and Commission regulations. The Factual and Legal Analysis, which formed a basis for the Commission's finding, is attached for your information.

You may submit any factual or legal materials that you believe are relevant to the Commission's consideration of this matter. Please submit such materials to the General Counsel's Office within 15 days of your receipt of this letter. In addition, please complete and return the enclosed questionnaire within 15 days. Where appropriate, statements should be submitted under oath. In the absence of additional information, the Commission may find probable cause to believe that a violation has occurred and proceed with conciliation.

If you are interested in pursuing pre-probable cause conciliation, you should so request in writing. See 11 C.F.R. § 111.18(d). Upon receipt of the request, the Office of the General Counsel will make recommendations to the Commission either proposing an agreement in settlement of the matter or recommending declining that pre-probable cause conciliation be pursued. The Office of the General Counsel may recommend that pre-probable cause conciliation not be entered into at this time so that it may complete its investigation of the matter. Further, the Commission will not entertain requests for pre-probable cause conciliation after briefs on probable cause have been mailed to the respondent.

Requests for extensions of time will not be routinely granted. Requests must be made in writing at least five days prior to the due date of the response and specific good cause must be demonstrated. In addition, the Office of the General Counsel ordinarily will not give extensions beyond 20 days.

If you intend to be represented by counsel in this matter, please advise the Commission by completing the enclosed form stating the name, address, and telephone number of such counsel, and authorizing such counsel to receive any notifications and other communications from the Commission.

This matter will remain confidential in accordance with 2 U.S.C. §§ 437g(a)(4)(B) and 437g(a)(12)(A), unless you notify the Commission in writing that you wish the investigation to be made public.

For your information, we have enclosed a brief description of the Commission's procedures for handling possible violations of the Act. If you have any questions, please contact Albert Veldhuyzen or Michelle E. Abellera, the attorneys assigned to this matter, at (202) 694-1650.

Sincerely,

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION FACTUAL AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

RESPONDENT: Dara Kushner

MUR: 5279

I. GENERATION OF MATTER

This matter was generated by an audit of Bradley for President, Inc. ("Committee") and Theodore V. Wells, as treasurer, undertaken in accordance with 26 U.S.C. § 9038(a).

II. FACTUAL AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

A. Law

The Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended (the "Act"), provides that no person shall make a contribution in the name of another person or knowingly permit his name to be used to effect such a contribution, and no person shall knowingly accept a contribution made by one person in the name of another. 2 U.S.C. § 441f. See also 11 C.F.R. § 110.4(b)(1).

B. Contribution in the Name of Another

The Committee received 40 business checks totaling $40,000 on June 22, 1999. The checks were written on the accounts of 40 different business entities and attributed to 39 individuals. A contribution schedule provided by the Committee listed all the contributors as partners in various "partnerships;" the schedule listed the names of the partnerships, the contributing partner and the address of the partnership. All of the partnerships have the same address: 26 Columbia Turnpike, Florham Park, NJ. This address is the corporate headquarters of Kushner Companies, a business owned and chaired by Charles Kushner.¹ Seven S.L.P. Associates has been identified as a managing residential property held by Kushner Companies.

¹ Dun and Bradstreet reports indicate that Kushner Companies is involved in approximately 100 locations. These properties appear to be managed by partnerships or limited liability companies in which Kushner Companies is the general partner.

24-04-408-1600

1 One of the contributions (check #5078 written for $1,000) was attributed to Dara Kushner
2 as a partner of Seven S.L.P. Associates. However, there is no evidence to confirm that Ms.
3 Kushner is a partner in Seven S.L.P. Associates or that Ms. Kushner's individual partnership
4 account was charged.² The Commission attempted to verify the status of Seven S.L.P.
5 Associates through Dun and Bradstreet and the New Jersey Secretary of State. There was no
6 evidence that Ms. Kushner was a "partner" of Seven S.L.P. Associates. However, research by 7 this office revealed that Ms. Kushner is a relative of Mr. Kushner.

8 An examination of all 40 contribution checks indicates that they were mass-produced and 9 originated from a single corporate source. The accountholder's name, bank routing numbers and 10 other notations all appear to be printed in the same type as the payee and amount information.
11 All but three checks contained the same typographical error. The fundraiser's name, Sapoch, was 12 spelled incorrectly in the payee line ("Japoch"). All of the checks were drawn on accounts held 13 at two different banks, Norcrown Bank and Valley National Bank. Norcrown Bank is part of the 14 Kushner group of businesses. Lastly, all the checks appear to have been signed by the same
15 person. Although not legible, the signatures on the checks appear very consistent.³ Given the 16 likelihood that the checks were signed by Mr. Kushner and originated from Kushner Companies
17 and given the absence of evidence that the partners of the various partnerships intended to make 18 contributions, the Office of General Counsel believes that Kushner Companies and/or Mr.
19 Kushner were the true source of the contributions.

² The Committee sent follow-up letters to determine the eligibility of the contributions for matching funds. Only 4 of the 39 contributors replied to the Committee's request for verification. Ms. Kushner did not reply.

³ A comparison of the check signatures with Mr. Kushner's signature as displayed on the Kushner Companies' website suggests that the signatures may have originated from the same person.

24-04-403-1601

1 Given Kushner Companies and Mr. Kushner's control over Seven S.L.P. Associates and
2 other partnerships, Mr. Kushner's relation to Ms. Kushner and other named contributors, and the
3 fact that the contributions appear to be signed by the same individual, were written for the same
4 amount, and delivered on the same day, it is likely that contributions were made in the name of
5 another. Furthermore, Ms. Kushner made contributions to other federal campaign committees
6 under similar circumstances. The presence of this bundling pattern of contributions suggests that 7 Ms. Kushner may have allowed her name to be used to effect contributions in the name of 8 another. Accordingly, the Commission found reason to believe that Dara Kushner violated
9 2 U.S.C. § 441f and 11 C.F.R. § 110.4(b)(1)(iv).

10 C. Excessive Contributions

11 The Act prohibits individuals from making contributions aggregating more than $25,000
12 in any calendar year. 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(3). Any contribution made to a candidate with respect
13 to a particular election, but made in a non-election year, is considered to be made during the 14 calendar year in which the election is held. 11 C.F.R. § 110.5(c)(1)-(2). Based on a review of 15 the campaign disclosure database, it appears that Ms. Kushner made contributions totaling 16 $33,000 in 2000. Accordingly, the Commission found reason to believe that Ms. Kushner
17 violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(3) and 11 C.F.R. § 110.5(b) by making contributions in excess of her
18 annual $25,000 contribution limitation.
